Celia's Word

Via a quote from InterGen.

We might often hear and use the language of salvation being saved or good news. But what is it? What does it mean for our communities as well as each of us and why does Jesus 'Good News' matter? As we see with the belief and repentance of the citizens of the City of Ninevah. Jonah: 3. 1-10 God spares them from judgement and changes the way they live. For David, it is a rock he can stand on in faith. Ps 62: 6. Trusting in God.

For the people of Galilee, it's an invitation.

Perhaps for us, it's all of this wrapped up in following Jesus.

*Truly he is my Rock
and my Salvation;
He is my fortress
I will never be shaken.*
