Wayne's Word

A weekly column by our Priest in Charge

Another Perspective on the 'Body of Christ'

All of you together are Christ's body, and each of you is a part of it.

(1 Corinthians 12:27)

How does that work? What might it look like? What does it mean even? Here's something I came across which puts it in a way we can clearly grasp.

Someone has imagined the carpenter's tools holding a conference. Brother Hammer presided. Several suggested he leave the meeting because he was too noisy. Replied the Hammer, "If I have to leave this shop, Brother Screw must go also. You have to turn him around again and again to get him to accomplish anything." Brother Screw then spoke up. "If you wish, I will leave. But Brother Plane must leave too. All his work is on the surface. His efforts have no depth." To this Brother Plane responded, "Brother Rule will also have to withdraw, for he is always measuring folks as though he were the only one who is right." Brother Rule then complained against Brother Sandpaper, "You ought to leave too because you're so rough and always rubbing people the wrong way. In the midst of all this discussion, in walked the Carpenter of Nazareth. He had arrived to start His day's work. Putting on His apron, He went to the bench to make a pulpit from which to proclaim the gospel. He employed the hammer, screw, plane, rule, sandpaper, and all the other tools. After the day's work when the pulpit was finished, Brother Saw arose and remarked, "Brethren, I observe that all of us are workers together with the Lord."

*Lord God, we thank you for drawing us into the body of those who trust in Christ
and seek to do his will.
May your Spirit guide
and strengthen us in mission
and service to your world;
For we are strangers no longer
but members of one body,
working together,
on the way to your kingdom.
AMEN.*

Shalom, Wayne
