

WELCOME TO OUR CHURCH

We welcome this morning Lindsay McCaw, reading the sermon and Lynda Wintle, Liturgist

We hope you find God's presence in the service today.
Please join us for refreshments following the service.

Orange Light regulations: We recommend you continue to wear your face masks for everyone's safety.

Good News!

We have been advised by Christine and Bill Bygrave that the fundraiser calves, now two years old, have been sold at market for the amazing amount of $9,399.88 to be deposited in the MMD general account in due course.

Our grateful thanks go to Paula and Stephen Whyte for their hard work in raising the calves over the past two years, and to those people who originally donated the purchase funds. Thank you all for your generosity. An awesome result.

Thank You!

You will notice that new fencing has gone up around the central drain in Christ the King carpark. This was put in by Mark Bygrave last Monday morning and has greatly improved the appearance of the carpark. Many thanks to Mark, Dave Hyndman, Bill, Neville and Lindsay for sorting the drainage problems experienced recently—an excellent team!

Worship Team

At Lindsay's suggestion, Governing Body is looking for volunteers to join a worship team who will meet to plan services for our mission district, up until a new Priest-in-Charge is appointed. The team would comprise wardens, retired clergy, liturgists, musicians, overhead operators, etc. If you are interested please talk to Lindsay or Jo.

Christ the King—purchases

To ease Jo's workload a little, we are looking for a volunteer to keep an eye on supplies in the kitchen, and purchase tea, coffee, milk, cleaning items, etc, as needed. If this sounds like you, please talk to Jo.

Advance Notice:

Blessing and Thanksgiving Service

A special service is planned at St Paul's, Kaiwaka on Sunday 17th July, to bless the new electronic organ. Anne Connolly-Munt is healing well from surgery and plans to play the organ at this service

Bernard's Word

Do you think that perhaps one of the most frequent requests we humans make is for, "a bit of peace and quiet"? It could be that our call for that peace and quiet is a wish to have the time, with an untroubled mind, to think something through to have clarity of thought.

"Quiet" seems to be a state which is very difficult for humans to reach and sustain. It is almost as if we are uncomfortable in, or a little frightened by, silence. Or perhaps, over influenced by the words of Rudyard Kipling, "If you can fill the unforgiving minute/With sixty seconds worth of . . ." Often when we come to church our conversations continue into the nave and go on until the service starts! Yet this time in the nave is a lovely opportunity to be still, to contemplate our faith and the forthcoming service; perhaps to offer silent prayer. Our quietness also means that we do not intrude into the stillness and contemplation of others in the congregation.

So, what about "Peace"? We could say that there are two aspects of peace. There is peace between nations, between cultures, between individuals. A relationship peace. Consider the Reverend Phil Dyer's reflection on Psalm 133:

"How wonderful and good it is when people live together in peace. Blessings pour upon them and cover them with fragrance. Like a heavy dew that saturates the ground refreshes the earth and fills the land with harvest, so it is when people learn to live in peace."

The other aspect is an inner peace; a person's state of mind between conscience, soul, and God. An individual peace. We need to go to the word of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. He said, ". . . my peace I leave with you." (John 14: 27). He also said that he had given us his words and teaching, ". . . that in me you might have peace." (John 16:33). He told that he came as a servant: there might be a clue here.

A pathway to this peace has been offered by Mother Teresa of Calcutta: "The fruit of silence is prayer, The fruit of prayer is faith, The fruit of faith is love, The fruit of love is service, The fruit of service is peace."
