

Te Pouhere Sunday

WELCOME TO CHURCH AT CHRIST THE KING

We welcome Celia, who is our liturgist, and will be preaching Jonathan's sermon for us today.

We hope you find God's presence in her service this morning.

Birthdays

Margaret Haverfield                      18th June

Sue Hamilton-Wallace                      20th June

We had the second of our prayer meetings last Tuesday morning and I have to say I have gained such a lot from these. Jonathan has given me and probably the others attending, a totally different insight into praying and how to pray. These meetings are so worthwhile, and I would thoroughly recommend them to anyone who has not yet attended. It's not too late. Our next meeting will be on the first Tuesday in July between 10.00am and 11.00am. Watch the Pew News for details.

Prayerful Consideration

Just a gentle reminder. On entering the church, please be respectful of others who may wish to sit quietly in prayer or contemplation before our service commences. If you do wish to greet someone or share some news, could this be done very quietly please, so as not to disturb others.

Church Rosters

If you are on either the Worship Roster, Cleaning Roster, or Flower Roster, could you please be aware of when you are required. We are very grateful to all those who volunteer their services, but it makes it easier for the Liturgists and others, if they don't have to ring around reminding people. If you are doing a reading you just need to check with the Liturgist which reading you are doing and that the reading hasn't been changed since the roster went out.

What is Te Pouhere? Te Pouhere Sunday is the second Sunday after Pentecost, and is the day on which this Church celebrates its Constitution / Te Pouhere, which establishes the three Tikanga (cultural streams) of this Church in this Province of Aotearoa New Zealand and Polynesia.

The Anglican Church of Aotearoa New Zealand and Polynesia has three beautiful cultural strands or ways of doing things – Maori, Pakeha and Pasifika.

This relationship came into place in 1992, and the word Te Pouhere means constitution – which, in te reo, also means a hitching post for a waka. There is one post (Christ) with three wakas tied up to it.
