Regarding the Mid-Winter Dinner to help ease everyone's feelings of discontent with the dreadful weather we have been having, for what seems liked forever!!! We propose holding this at Christ the King lounge on Saturday 29th July, commencing 5.00 – 5.30pm, dining at approximately 6.00 – 6.30pm.

It will be a Pot Luck affair and it would be wonderful if we had some cheeses or things to nibble on before dinner. We can provide a baked ham. This would leave others to bring whatever they like in the way of other meat, vegetables, salads, and desserts. If you would like to enjoy a glass or two of wine, or any other liquid refreshment, this would be BYO

This was Gillian Whitley's wonderful idea, and she has offered to be our point of contact. Ph: 021 537 356

For our upcoming prayer meeting on 1st August, Jonathan has asked that you please have a listen to N.T Wright in a short video [How to Pray For the World | Psalm 70:1-2] in preparation for the 1st of August Prayer Meeting

A request for everyone from the Governing Body. As Fay is no longer here to offer her expertise, we ask that anyone who can, will take photos of all and any events at church. Email to admin@mangawhaianglican.com

As truly as God is our father, so just as truly is he our Mother. In our father, God Almighty, we have our being; in our merciful Mother we are remade and restored. Our fragmented lives are knit together. And by giving and yielding ourselves, through grace, to the Holy Spirit we are made whole.

It is I, the strength and goodness of Fatherhood.

It is I, the wisdom of Motherhood.

It is I, the light and grace of holy love.

It is I, the Trinity.

I am the sovereign goodness in all things.

It is I who teach you to love.

It is I who teach you to desire.

It is I who am the reward of all true desiring.

All shall be well, and all manner of things shall be well.

Amen.

These are the words of Julian of Norwich; they have been set to music by William Mathias.

I first heard this at Holy Trinity Cathedral - well worth seeking out on YouTube.
