WELCOME TO ST. PAUL'S

We welcome Derek Christensen who will be leading Morning Prayer today.

We hope you find God's presence in the service this morning.

Please join us for refreshments following the service.

Notices

The position for a new priest is being advertised this week by the Auckland Diocese. We would ask that you keep in your prayers a positive outcome and that this role be filled soon.

Should you have any notices you wish to have included in the Pew News, could you please email these to sylviaecmoney@gmail.com

Sylvia Money has offered to undertake the preparation of the Pew News each week. We thank Sylvia very much for doing this.

Pray for Peace

What is peace?

Peace is a continuous act of creation.
Realising that life is precious in all its forms,
we come to see an essential truth:
We are guardians of one another, and of the earth.

Recognising our power to heal, we find compassion.
With compassion comes trust.
With trust comes openness.
With openness comes connection.
With connection comes understanding.
With understanding comes peace.

Peace is not an absence of conflict.
Peace is a willingness to deal with conflict intelligently.

Taste peace in your own mouth.
Feel the touch of peace on your own skin.
Let your ears fill with the sounds of peace.
Feel the longings for peace that fill your own heart.
Let your mind rest on the word peace.
Open to what peace can bring to you and others.

Without taking a single step from this place your prayers can encircle the world.
